Special to The Washington Henall Hawre de Grace, Md., April 28.—That irresistible combination—H. G. Bedwell and Eddie Tapin—took up the running from Holland and sicTaggart, and were much in the limelight this afternoon.
Bedwell claimed Briarpath from Holland last week and that "the wizard"s ability as a David Harum has not diminiahed was attested when the daughter of Marta Santa Tow roped a classy field and won with much to spare. When the barrier was sprung Briarpath took the lead, and won under gentle pressure, by daylight.

Briarpath's victory was followed by another triumph for Bedwell and Taplin, for Marjorie A. won the net event. Taplin beat the barrier and won all the way, winning by quite a margin.

After Bedwell had won two races the talent decided to go on the Bedwell entry in the stake race. Jesse, jr., an outsider,

SPECIAL PRIZES

Two teams in the Uniform Contest will receive a brand-new official American League baseball and the choice of a baseball bat. Will your team be one of them? A little hustling will turn the trick.

HERE'S THE PROPOSITION:

The team turning in the greatest number of the twenty-five-vote coupons between now and next Saturday, May 2, at 6 p. m., will receive in addition to the regular votes a special prize consisting of an official American League ball and a bat of their own selection.

The team turning in the greatest number of subscriptions to The Sunday Herald between now and next Saturday, May 2, at 6 p. m., also will receive in addition to the regular votes a special prize consisting of an official American League ball and a bat of their own selection.

These special prizes have nothing to do with the contest in general. The votes secured will be credited to the respective teams toward the winning of the complete baseball outfits in the regular way. These special prizes depend only on the work done this week.

ENTER YOUR TEAM NOW.

It's not too late. You can start now and win. One of the special prizes offered last week was won by a new entry. THE GRANTS, under the leadership of Capt. Chas. Kirshenbaum, led the way in collecting coupons from The Sunday Herald. Your team can do just
